

33RD ANNUAL ANTIQUES FAIR 5TH, 6TH & 7TH MARCH 2010

Friday, Saturday and Sunday saw antique collectors from all over the country turn out in great numbers to visit the Fair at Wilton House, their spirits raised by the sunshine.

With 37 stands of antiques to suit everyone, from watercolours and oil paintings, jewellery, fine furniture, rugs, maps, glassware, sculpture and silver (download catalogue of Exhibitors' here), the visitors found a spectacular range of top-class antiques in the Cloisters and the Old Riding School.

Lord Pembroke and his fiancée, Miss Victoria Bullough, presented the Best Dressed Stand Award to Hingstons of Wilton, a worthy debut at the Fair for Nick Hingston, and we were delighted that Bernard Eves from The Bellows clocked up his 32nd year here.

The Gift Shop reported an excellent weekend, with many of its new lines in mugs, cards by local artists and throws proving extremely popular, and the newly-refurbished Restaurant had their busiest Antiques Fair weekend in three years, serving lunches, teas and refreshments.
